Raúl Pineda Caballero

Videogames Software Engineer Student at Xamk | Software Developer

Helsinki, Uusimaa, Finland

Summary

At this moment I am studying videogame software engineer at XAMK. I am passionate of learning and dive deep about stuff but also I love creating things that are useful either for others or for myself, for that reason I created Softulike association as well as I found out that one of my passions is to teach to others my knowledge.

Experience

softulike

Software Consultant

July 2025 - Present (7 months)

Helsinki Metropolitan Area

Tutor with Preply

Independent Spanish Teacher

November 2025 - Present (3 months)

Helsinki Metropolitan Area

Over the past few years, I've had the chance to learn several languages on my own, and I realized that I could help others learn new languages like I did. That's why I see teaching as both a passionate hobby and a profession where I can develop my communication skills and creativity as well as empathy with the students while helping others and that's the reason because recently I started to teach English and Spanish for people who has struggled learning a languages as me.
